

Land Watch Asia Land Monitoring Working Group (LWA LMWG)

BANGLADESH

Association for Land Reform and Development (ALRD) was established in January 1991 as single-focused rights based national networking organization, mandated to facilitate the land and agrarian reform advocacy, mobilization and capacity building of its partners and allies in enabling access to and control over natural resources of the poor, landless and marginalized communities in Bangladesh. In the subsequent decades, ALRD emerged as a professionally trained knowledge network in the land sector to amplify the collective voice of the marginalized communities in Bangladesh. Currently, it has a network of 200+ NGOs and civil society organizations all across the country.

INDONESIA

Established in 1994, the Consortium for Agrarian Reform (KPA) currently consists of 153 people's organizations (peasants, indigenous peoples, rural women, fisherfolk, urban poor) and NGOs in 23 provinces in Indonesia. KPA fights for agrarian reform in Indonesia through advocacy and the strengthening of people's organizations. KPA's focus on land reform and tenurial security, and policy advocacy on these issues has put the coalition at the forefront of the land rights struggles of Indonesia's landless rural poor, especially with indigenous peoples in several areas in Outer Java. KPA encourages a participatory and pluralistic approach which recognizes the development of different systems of land use and tenure to ensure land rights. KPA is a people's movement that has an open and independent character.
