

2020 Agrarian Conflicts in Indonesia

Violence against peasants during agrarian conflict

- 19 injured
- 11 killed
- 139 criminalized

Individual victims by gender

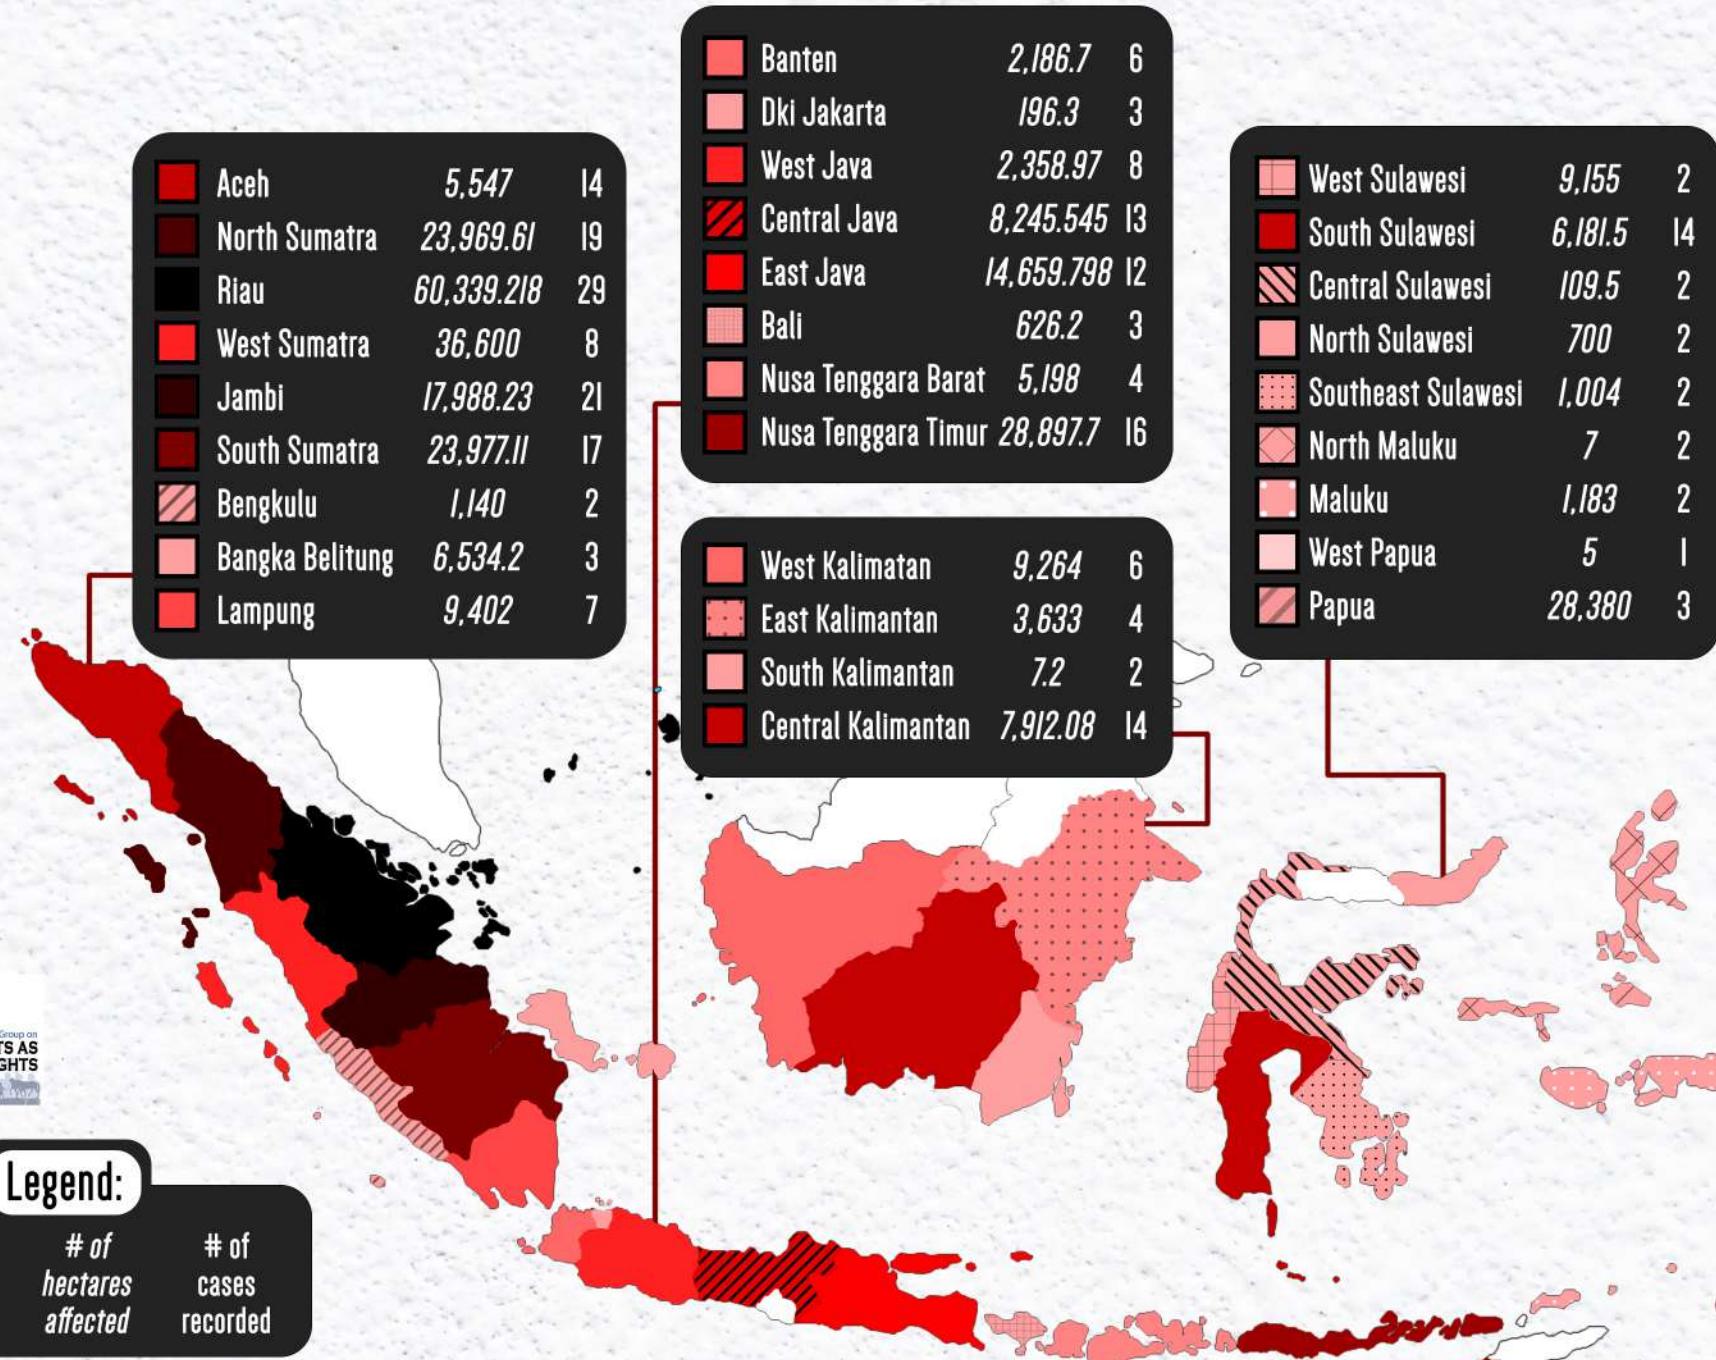

- 163 male individuals
- 6 female individuals

Perpetrators of individual violence

- 46 police
- 22 army/military
- 20 private security
- 9 municipal police (Satpol PP)

Sources of agrarian conflict

- 122 Plantation
- 41 Forestry
- 30 Infrastructure development
- 20 Property
- 12 Mining
- 11 Military facilities
- 3 Coastal and small islands
- 2 Agribusiness

Country summary

Indonesia
Total number of cases 241 hectares affected 624,273 households affected 135,337
from 359 villages

Legend:

- Province
- # of hectares affected
- # of cases recorded

Prepared by: ANGOC, LAND WATCH ASIA, KONSORSIUM PEMBARUAN AGRARIA (KPA), Asia Working Group on LAND RIGHTS AS HUMAN RIGHTS

Supported by: INTERNATIONAL LAND COALITION, B+HR, UNDP

Disclaimer:
The views in the land conflict monitoring reports do not necessarily reflect the views of ILC and UNDP BH+R Asia

This heat map represents the relative number of cases affected by land and resource conflicts in the regions. Darker areas represent more land conflicts recorded in the regions.
*Agrarian conflicts in Indonesia negatively affect peasants, indigenous peoples, fisherfolk, and other small communities across the provinces of Indonesia.